

December 2024 speaking event

Title: What Not Nuclear Energy

Speaker: Dr Ian Burston, PhD, BEng, CPEng, MIEAust.

Background: Ian Burston, a research consulting engineer in water, energy conservation and renewable energy, has been pursuing the option of having nuclear energy considered part of our energy mix. He has proactively worked closely with some of our engineering educational institutions to have nuclear energy studies included in their engineering curriculum. Ian's engineering background extends to public and private sectors including periods as an academic at our local university.

Date: Thursday, 12th Dec 2024

Registration: 5:45pm

Start/End: 6:00pm – 8:30pm (Presentation + Q&A 6:00 to 7:30)

Event type: Discussion topic and networking.

Topic: A presentation and discussion opportunity on the subject to consider whether nuclear energy should be part of Australia's energy mix, which has become a hot election issue. There is much information on various energy options available through general and social media, but sometimes the information makes it more difficult to make decisions. This presentation will introduce some easily understood points to assist in discussing the options available.
